

Blind Devotion

You should've been arrested long ago
You should've been tested for signs of intelligent life
You should've been questioned long ago
You should've been pestered until you got the answer right. Right?
A feeble smile here and a strong step there and a couple shots here and a couple shots there

Somehow I didn't hear the rumors I should've been tested for volume control
I should've known better than to believe your explanation cuz now my goal in life is quality control
(repeat pre-hook)

Rumors and evidence and ridicule and bended rule and supertime missed (2x) and everybody's fool – angels talkin to me, tell me everything I missed because of blind devotion

Somehow I didn't hear the rumors I should've been tested for volume control
A shadow of a fantasy all covered up – isn't it amazing how easy it is to master it?
(pre-hook)
